Just One Touch

Sharon Rutherford

1.Yes, Lord, there's some - thing in my life, Some - thing that needs a touch from You,

Oh lord, it seems so right to me, But just one touch from you can set me free.

2.Yes Lord, I'm wil - ling to go on, When it seems my heart's de - sire is gone.

I trust You, Lord, to work Your will in me, Just one touch from You can set me free.

3.Some - times Lord, it's more than I can bear, And some - times it does - n't seem quite fair.

But I know Lord, Your will is best for me, And just one touch from You can set me free.

4.Oh Lord, Will I al - ways be this way? So weak and stum - bling e - very day?

No Lord, You've gi - ven Your word to me, That just one touch from You will set me free.

5.Oh Lord, af - ter all You've brought me through. "He who has be - gun a good work in You…"

So I know You'll ne - ver give up on me, I be - lieve one touch from You can set me free.

6.Oh Lord, when the dark - ness clo - ses in, And all the world seems o - ver - come by sin,

Then Lord You shine Your light on me, And just one touch from You can set me free.

7.Oh Lord, when I keep my eyes on You, I see it all from such a dif - ferent view!

The strug - gles fade as I look t'ward e - ter - ni - ty, Then just one touch from You can set me free.

Praise God, one touch from You has set me free!
