

A Higher Place

Sharon Rutherford

$\text{♩} = 100$
Verse 1

My child, I know you don't un-der - stand, My ways, they seem so hard to you.

9

I ask you to give Me your hand, Sim-ply trust Me to lead you through.

Verse 2

My child, I'm ta-king you to a hig-her place, I know it seems so far a-way!

25

If on-ly you'll ac-cept it by My grace, And be-lieve I'll do what I say.

Verse 3

My child, you're clo-ser than you know It's dar-kest just be-fore the dawn.

41

So get up, and on-ward we'll go! You'll be sur-prised at how far we've gone.

Verse 4

My child, sud - den-ly you see! Your hope is be - co-ming re-a-li-ty.

57

I am here, and al - ways will be, All you real-ly need is Me.

Verse 5

My Lord, Your beau-ty floods my soul! And Your glo-ry is all a - round me.

73

Thank you Lord, for ma-king me whole, And lea-ding me on to vic-to - ry.

81 Verse 6

My Lord, e-ven when I can-not see, I trust You with all that is with - in me!

89

Thank You for your in-fi - nite pa-tience with me, You work so hard at set-ting me free.

97 Verse 7

My Lord, I re - joice in Your faith-ful-ness, Teach me, Lord, to walk with You.

105

My Lord, take me to that high-er place, Where I see your pro-mi-ses come true,

113

Where I can be filled - with You.